Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

We are placing Invesco Oppenheimer International Growth on watch for performance. This fund has struggled recently, most notably in 2018 when it fell further than its category peers and benchmark index. In the first half of 2019, the fund outpaced its prospectus benchmark and kept pace with its peers in the Foreign Large Growth Morningstar Category, but it could take some time for this fund to regain its standings in the category. There's reason for hope, as manager George Evans has led the effort here for over twenty years and long-term results are still competitive. We'll be watching for better relative performance in the coming quarters.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

In mid-December 2019, PIMCO announced that longtime lead manager Mihir Worah would be retiring in March of 2020. Although the fund benefits from PIMCO's extensive resources and the current managers are experienced (but new to the team) we believe the fund merits watch status while we closely monitor its results after Worah's departure. This fund fails our expense screen with fees that are higher than the broad category average. Plan costs are sometimes wrapped into fund fees, but because costs are predictive of a fund's future relative performance, we would still like to see lower overall expenses here.

In mid-December 2019, PIMCO announced that longtime lead manager Mihir Worah would be retiring in March of 2020. Although the fund benefits from PIMCO's extensive resources and the current managers are experienced (but new to the team) we believe the fund merits watch status while we closely monitor its results after Worah's departure. This fund fails our expense screen with fees that are higher than the broad category average. Plan costs are sometimes wrapped into fund fees, but because costs are predictive of a fund's future relative performance, we would still like to see lower overall expenses here.
