✘ Management: The fund's management team has been in place for less than three years.

✘ Style: The fund has landed in its primary style box — Mid-Cap Blend — 58.82 % of the time over the past three years.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund currently fails the style screen as result of placing just into the small-blend square of the style box, but this is a function of the index that it tracks. It still supplies adequate mid-cap exposure. This fund also fails the manager tenure screen because of manager changes, but we are generally not concerned about manager changes for index funds.
