Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

Performance at this analyst-driven fund has fallen off in recent years with three calendar years of bottom-third performance rankings in its category, and underperformance again so far in the first half of 2025. It has lagged the average category peer by two percentage points annualized over the trailing three-year period and lagged its benchmark by 3.5 percentage points over that time. While the fund consistently exhibits lower risk metrics, this stretch of recent underperformance is weighing on the longer-term performance record, and we are placing the fund on watch.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund fails our expense screen with fees that are higher than the broad category average. Plan costs are sometimes wrapped into fund fees, but because costs are predictive of a fund's future relative performance, we would still like to see lower overall expenses here.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

We placed Metropolitan West Total Return Bond on watch due to a major leadership change at TCW. The most significant changes are that veteran portfolio managers Laird Landmann and Stephen Kane will retire at the end of 2023 and 2024, respectively. These departures have the potential to materially affect this and several other TCW and Metropolitan West strategies, and we will be forming a more detailed opinion about these funds' prospects in coming quarters.
