Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

In April 2019, BlackRock named its CIO for global fixed income, Rick Rieder, lead of the global allocation investment team and comanager on this fund alongside Dan Chamby, Russ Koesterich, and David Clayton. It also announced that Chamby, the longest-tenured manager here after the strategy's co-founder Dennis Stattman retired in 2017, would retire by March 2020, while Kent Hogshire, who had been on a leave of absence since July 2018, was leaving the firm. Rieder and the fixed-income team he leads are well regarded, and we do not believe these changes augur any significant alterations to the fund's historical investment approach. Nevertheless, these changes do increase uncertainty around the strategy, so we will keep it on watch as we monitor how it evolves under its new management structure.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund went on watch earlier this year after portfolio manager Martin Hegarty left the firm. His departure followed other turnover on the team in 2017. However, we maintain confidence in the fund due to its solid process and talented underlying resources. Under current portfolio managers David Rogal and Chris Allen, the fund has performed as expected and we believe that they will continue to implement the solid process that has been in place for years.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

We are placing this fund on watch due to a manager change. At the end of March 2019, longtime lead manager Rajeev Bhman retired. Although his successor is experienced, Bhman was key to the fund's long-term success. We are placing the fund on watch while we monitor how it fares under new management.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund fails our expense screen with fees that are higher than the broad category average. Plan costs are sometimes wrapped into fund fees, but because costs are predictive of a fund's future relative performance, we would still like to see lower overall expenses here.
