Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund went on watch earlier this year after portfolio manager Martin Hegarty left the firm. His departure followed other turnover on the team in 2017. However, we maintain confidence in the fund due to its solid process and talented underlying resources. Under current portfolio managers David Rogal and Chris Allen, the fund has performed as expected and we believe that they will continue to implement the solid process that has been in place for years.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

As part of our ongoing due diligence, Morningstar Investment Management routinely reviews the universe of options available to plan sponsors to help ensure they are consistent with our best thinking and highest conviction ideas. Based on our most recent review, Wells Fargo Common Stock no longer meets our highest standard, and we are removing it from fiduciary coverage. Funds may be removed because of a combination of weak absolute or relative performance, mediocre investment processes, changes to management, uncompetitive fees, or the presence of what we believe are superior options in a plan universe. This fund has lagged behind its benchmark, the Russell 2500 index, over the trailing one-, three-, five-, and ten-year periods, and some share classes of the fund have above average total expenses. Given these concerns, we believe there are more compelling options available in the mid-cap blend Morningstar Category.
