Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

In April 2019, BlackRock named its CIO for global fixed income, Rick Rieder, lead of the global allocation investment team and comanager on this fund alongside Dan Chamby, Russ Koesterich, and David Clayton. It also announced that Chamby, the longest-tenured manager here after the strategy's co-founder Dennis Stattman retired in 2017, would retire by March 2020, while Kent Hogshire, who had been on a leave of absence since July 2018, was leaving the firm. Rieder and the fixed-income team he leads are well regarded, and we do not believe these changes augur any significant alterations to the fund's historical investment approach. Nevertheless, these changes do increase uncertainty around the strategy, so we will keep it on watch as we monitor how it evolves under its new management structure.

Quantitative Screens

✔ Performance: The fund has finished in the Inflation-Protected Bond category's top three quartiles in 9 of the 10 years it's been in existence.

✘ Management: The fund's management team has been in place for less than three years.

Style Consistency is not calculated for Fixed Income funds.

✘ Net Expense: The fund's expense ratio of 1.08 is 54.29% higher than the Inflation-Protected Bond category average.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

In mid-December 2019, PIMCO announced that longtime lead manager Mihir Worah would be retiring in March of 2020. Although the fund benefits from PIMCO's extensive resources and the current managers are experienced (but new to the team) we believe the fund merits watch status while we closely monitor its results after Worah's departure. This fund fails our expense screen with fees that are higher than the broad category average. Plan costs are sometimes wrapped into fund fees, but because costs are predictive of a fund's future relative performance, we would still like to see lower overall expenses here.
