Net Expense: The fund's expense ratio of 0.69 is 36.11% lower than the Foreign Large Growth category average.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

We are placing Invesco Oppenheimer International Growth on watch for performance. This fund has struggled recently, most notably in 2018 when it fell further than its category peers and benchmark index. In the first half of 2019, the fund outpaced its prospectus benchmark and kept pace with its peers in the Foreign Large Growth Morningstar Category, but it could take some time for this fund to regain its standings in the category. There's reason for hope, as manager George Evans has led the effort here for over twenty years and long-term results are still competitive. We'll be watching for better relative performance in the coming quarters.

✘ Style: The fund has landed in its primary style box — Small Growth — 8.57 % of the time over the past three years.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund fails our style screen due to edging up into mid-cap territory but its portfolio positioning is consistent with the overall investment strategy. However, we are placing PGIM Jennison Small Company on watch due to a manager retirement. John Mullman, the longest tenured manager on this fund, retired in March 2020. The move had been previously announced, so the change did not come as a surprise and was well planned. Also encouraging is that Jason Swiatek, lead manager here since November 2013, and Jonathan Shapiro, a named comanager since July 2018, remain on the fund. Both have extensive experience but, amid a period of underperformance, we are placing the fund on watch to monitor whether any substantive changes to philosophy or implementation of the strategy occur following Mullman's departure.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

We placed this fund on watch due to concerns about the fund's fit for retirement savings. The fund had seen increased volatility relative to its category and its highly unusual strategy can make it difficult for plan participants to use effectively. We are removing the fund from fiduciary coverage.
