Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

In April 2019, BlackRock named its CIO for global fixed income, Rick Rieder, lead of the global allocation investment team and comanager on this fund alongside Dan Chamby, Russ Koesterich, and David Clayton. It also announced that Chamby, the longest-tenured manager here after the strategy's co-founder Dennis Stattman retired in 2017, would retire by March 2020, while Kent Hogshire, who had been on a leave of absence since July 2018, was leaving the firm. Rieder and the fixed-income team he leads are well regarded, and we do not believe these changes augur any significant alterations to the fund's historical investment approach. Nevertheless, these changes do increase uncertainty around the strategy, so we will keep it on watch as we monitor how it evolves under its new management structure.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

This fund went on watch earlier this year after portfolio manager Martin Hegarty left the firm. His departure followed other turnover on the team in 2017. However, we maintain confidence in the fund due to its solid process and talented underlying resources. Under current portfolio managers David Rogal and Chris Allen, the fund has performed as expected and we believe that they will continue to implement the solid process that has been in place for years.

Morningstar Investment Management LLC Analysis

We are placing Invesco Oppenheimer International Growth on watch for performance. This fund has struggled recently, most notably in 2018 when it fell further than its category peers and benchmark index. In the first half of 2019, the fund outpaced its prospectus benchmark and kept pace with its peers in the Foreign Large Growth Morningstar Category, but it could take some time for this fund to regain its standings in the category. There's reason for hope, as manager George Evans has led the effort here for over twenty years and long-term results are still competitive. We'll be watching for better relative performance in the coming quarters.
